SECRETARIAT'S MESSAGE

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARIAT

Dear Members and Friends,

This summer has been a season of vibrant exchange and collaboration for our Network.

Amid the wave of AI innovation, the 2025 Global English Education China Assembly explored a new digital ecosystem for foreign language learning and launched the bilingual International Framework for Professional Development of English Teachers. The Belt and Road Forum for Language and Culture Collaboration, with the theme “Promoting the Silk Road Spirit, Deepening Mutual Learning among Civilizations,” showcased the dynamism and commitment of experts and youth in advancing cross-cultural understanding.

Our community has also grown to 70 members. At the 2025 Global Council Meeting, we set clear directions for deepening cooperation and empowering youth. In the months ahead, the Secretariat will drive innovation in multilingual and digital teaching, expand youth and media partnerships, and strengthen regional projects to enhance our global impact.

Thank you for your continued support and trust. Together, we will keep building bridges through language and sailing forward with education.

各理事单位及关心联盟发展的朋友们：

这个夏天，交流与合作的热潮涌动，见证了联盟在语言与文化交流领域的累累硕果。

在人工智能浪潮的推动下，2025 国际英语教育中国大会积极探索外语教育数字化的新生态，并隆重推出《“一带一路”国际英语教师专业发展框架》双语版。与此同时，“一带一路”语言教育文化论坛围绕“弘扬丝路精神、深化文明互鉴”展开深入对话，充分展现了来自世界各地的专家学者与青年力量在推动文明互鉴、共创未来中发挥的重要作用。这些活动不仅为全球教育工作者搭建了高水平的交流平台，也为构建和谐世界贡献了智慧与价值。

联盟自身也在稳步成长，成员数量已扩展至 70 家。在 2025 全球理事会议上，我们进一步明确了深化合作、赋能青年的发展方向。未来，秘书处将持续推进多语种教育与数字化教学的协同创新，强化青年与媒体合作，完善区域项目与共享治理机制，不断提升联盟的国际影响力与服务能力。

衷心感谢每一位成员与合作伙伴的积极参与与鼎力支持。让我们携手并进，以语言为桥，以教育为舟，共同谱写跨文化交流与教育合作的新篇章。

HIGHLIGHTS

GLOBAL ENGLISH EDUCATION CHINA ASSEMBLY

2025 国际英语教育中国大会在北京师范大学举办

Qu Yingpu, Publisher & Editor-in-chief of China Daily, addressed the event.

This year's assembly, with the theme "Building a new digital ecosystem for foreign-language education in the AI era", was held at Beijing Normal University from July 25 to 27. It featured nine keynote speeches and roundtable discussions, along with 36 parallel sessions. It explored new trends in English-language education in China and elsewhere in the context of artificial intelligence, promoting cross-cultural communication and mutual learning between Chinese and others through linguistic connectivity. The goal was to contribute Chinese insights and solutions to the development of foreign-language education. At the opening ceremony, the bilingual version of the book International Framework for Professional Development of English Teachers was published.

For the first time the assembly included a session titled "Bridging Cultures: A Dialogue on ELT and Global Classroom Observation". English teachers from China, Azerbaijan, Indonesia, Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Mongolia, Russia and Vietnam took part in parallel class presentations on themes such as cultural stories and traditional festivals. Attendees learned about cross-national language classrooms and experienced the diversity and integration of English teaching in various cultural contexts.

The assembly, co-hosted by China Daily, Beijing Normal University and Shanghai International Studies University, aimed to establish a high-level platform for English education exchange between China and the world, supporting the building of a strong educational system and contributing to the high-quality development of the Belt and Road Initiative through linguistic and cultural collaboration.

BELT AND ROAD FORUM FOR LANGUAGE AND CULTURE COLLABORATION

2025 “一带一路”语言教育文化论坛在北京召开

The Belt and Road Forum for Language and Culture Collaboration, with the theme "Promoting the spirit of the Silk Road, deepening mutual learning among civilizations", was held in Beijing on July 25. For the opening ceremony and the main forum, Professor Pan Weilian of Xiamen University, Fujian province, Yu Xuemei, vice president of Shanghai University, and Fan Xianrui, vice president of the Open University of China, Beijing, delivered keynote speeches.

In a segment titled "Gen Z Dialogue with University Leaders" Professor Zhu Pengxiao, vice president of Tianjin Foreign Studies University, Professor Zheng Chengjun, vice president of Beijing International Studies University, Professor Ma Shinian, vice president of Northwest Normal University in Lanzhou, Gansu province, and Professor Wang Jin, vice president of Hunan University of Science and Technology in Xiangtan, were invited to take part in a cross-generational conversation. They pointed out that higher education is shifting from knowledge transmission to competence development, with institutions increasingly adopting student-centered learning approaches and encouraging young people to critically rethink the meaning of success.

For the forum's roundtable discussion, eight presidents of English teachers' associations from countries including Azerbaijan, Brazil, Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Russia, the United Kingdom and the United States were invited to discuss the topic "Breaking cultural barriers; building a harmonious world." Experts agreed that innovative language-teaching models can effectively promote dialogue and mutual understanding between civilizations, laying a foundation of shared values for building a community with a shared future for mankind.

Roundtable dialogue with TESOL presidents.

BELT AND ROAD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES NETWORK COUNCIL MEETING

一带一路 语言教育文化组织联盟 2025 全球理事会议在北京召开

The network council meeting in session.

This year's meeting of the network was held at Beijing Friendship Hotel on July 24, with about 50 member institutions taking apart. Zeng Qingkai, Secretary-general of China Daily and Editor-in-chief of 21st Century, expressed gratitude for members' support and proposed three key initiatives: strengthening multilingual cultural connectivity, fostering strategic collaboration through youth and media partnerships and enhancing member participation through shared governance and regional projects.

A 21-member executive council, comprising 14 Chinese member institutions and seven overseas member institutions, was elected. The secretariat, represented by Zhang Haigai, Deputy Editor-in-chief of 21st Century, reported significant progress over the past year, including network expansion to 70 members, high-impact academic forums and youth-focused programs such as the BRICS Young Leaders Forum and the Belt and Road Youth English Speaking Competition. The network aims to deepen academic collaboration, to become an international NGO, and to amplify its global influence, attendees were told.

During discussions, members emphasized the need for stronger academic collaboration, cultural exchange initiatives and improved information sharing. Proposals included joint research projects, teacher exchange programs and multilingual training to further bridge language and cultural divides. The council reaffirmed its commitment to empowering youth and fostering cross-border partnerships in education and communication.

GLOBAL CIVILIZATIONS DIALOGUE MINISTERIAL MEETING

全球文明对话部长级会议在北京举行

The meeting, with the theme "Safeguarding diversity of human civilizations for world peace and development", was held in Beijing from July 10 to 11. More than 600 representatives from various sectors in about 140 countries and regions attended.

The Beijing Declaration and Action Plan were released at the Global Civilizations Dialogue Ministerial Meeting. The Action Plan highlights 50 future development cooperation projects between China and other developing countries in the fields of culture and civilization in the next five years, among other programs.

The event is co-hosted by the Publicity Department and the International Department of the Communist Party of China Central Committee.

The conference, with the theme "Tracing the origins of Chinese civilization: Focus on Hongshan culture", was held in Chaoyang, Liaoning province, on June 14. Qu Yingpu, Publisher & Editor-in-chief of China Daily, addressed the event. The world's diverse civilizations today must be collectively protected, communicated and passed on, he said. "We must carry forward cultural heritage, passing on Chinese wisdom by decoding cultural genes to help the world better understand China," Qu said. "We should empower communication through digital and intelligent technologies, innovating narrative approaches to bring cultural relics to life and make culture more engaging. We need to build bridges and foster mutual understanding, promoting civilizational progress through deepened exchange and mutual learning, advancing the implementation of the Global Civilization Initiative and expanding international people-to-people and cultural exchanges to jointly promote the prosperity of civilizations and human progress."
